

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Friday, June 24, 2011

Grandma's Kitchen Issues Precautionary Recall for Canned Product

Canal Fulton, Ohio – Grandma's Kitchen of Canal Fulton, OH announces a voluntary recall of pint-sized jars of canned pickled beets and pepper products that were sold without the benefit of state inspection.

"We are issuing a voluntary recall on all products processed at this time," said Judy Spada, owner of Grandma's Kitchen.

The products subject to recall include:

- Grandma's Kitchen Pickled Beets
- Grandma's Kitchen Mild Hot Peppers
- Grandma's Kitchen Medium Hot Peppers
- Grandma's Kitchen Hot Peppers
- Grandma's Kitchen Pickled Butter
- Grandma's Kitchen Bread and Butter Peppers
- Grandma's Kitchen Sweet Pickled Chips

During a routine ODA food safety inspection, inspectors discovered product processing controls were not properly being followed and implemented.

Grandma's Kitchen urges its customers who have purchased these products not to eat them and to return them to: Grandma's Kitchen, 127 S Canal Street, Canal Fulton, OH 44614, or to call Judy Spada at 330-854-4810.

- 30 -

Media Contact: Grandma's Kitchen 127 S Canal St Canal Fulton, OH 44614, Judy Spada 330-854-4810.