Herm's Meats Announces Voluntary Recall for Product Produced Without Inspection

NAPOLEON, Ohio (May 30, 2014)—Herm's Meats announces a voluntary recall of hamburger patties that were produced without the benefit of state inspection and were sold at our retail store located at 734 S. Perry Street, Napoleon, Ohio between the dates of May 24th and May 29th.

Products subject to this recall include hamburger patties packaged in counts of 16. The packages are labeled with the state inspection legend containing "Est. 1129".

There have been no reports of illness due to the consumption of this product. If a person is concerned about illness, please contact your local health care professional.

We, at Herm's Meats, value our customers and strive to produce a safe and wholesome product. We apologize for any inconveniences this may have caused. Customers are encouraged to return any product in question to Herm's Meats at 734 S. Perry Street during the hours of 10am-5pm Monday through Friday, 9-2 Saturday. Feel free to call Scott McMurtrie at: 419-592-2771 with any concerns or questions.
