RE: Recall Announcement (ODA/ODH) 2016-55

CSM Bakery Solutions Issues Allergy Alert on Undeclared Peanut in Chick-Fil-A Chocolate Chunk Cookies

April 22, 2016 - Atlanta, GA – CSM Bakery Solutions is voluntarily recalling Chick-fil-A Chocolate Chunk Cookies because they may contain low levels of undeclared peanut. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to peanut run the risk of a serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume these products.

The recalled products were distributed through Chick-fil-A Restaurants.

The recalled products can be identified as follows:

No illnesses have been reported to date.

The recall was initiated after it was discovered by CSM during post-production testing that flour containing low-levels of undeclared peanut as a result of incidental contact was provided by a supplier to CSM Bakery Solutions. The flour was used in products distributed by CSM in packaging that did not reveal the presence of peanut.

Consumers and wholesale customers who have purchased the product are urged to return it to the place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact CSM Bakery Solutions at 1-800-241-8526 extension 4, option 3. Calls can be made to this office during normal business hours (EST) during the week.
